YOUR AXIS

THE KARMIC SETUP

Rahu in the 7th House | Ketu in the 1st House

Your Karmic Blueprint: Relationships vs. Self

The Karmic Setup, What's This Axis About?

Rahu in the 7th house pulls you toward others — spouse, partner, colleagues, business allies, and the public at large. The obsession is with forming relationships and seeking your identity through “the other.”

But Rahu doesn't let it flow smoothly. Instead, you may:

- 1. You may experience a karmic relationship that is highly volatile and full of drama.
- 2. You may find yourself in a relationship where you are constantly seeking validation from the other person.
- 3. You may experience a relationship where you are constantly being tested or challenged.
- 4. You may find yourself in a relationship where you are constantly being manipulated or controlled.
- 5. You may experience a relationship where you are constantly being rejected or abandoned.
